MUCH ACCOMPLISHED

A servant of the Lord is never off duty. I just wanted to share some of the things that the Lord had accomplished recently.

Follow-up is a much forgotten duty in many of our churches. We were able to do some follow-up and encourage James and Dorothy, to be baptized.

I was blessed to share our ministry with a group children at a Christian school. I encouraged them to "carry the mail," God's mail to a lost and dying world. Following the chapel service, the children wanted me to sign their Bibles. Here are all of the Bibles lined up on the chairs. I felt so honored by their heart for missionaries.

MUCH INSTRUCTED

I am here instructing a group of volunteers in the fine art of being a greeter, visitor center aid and an usher. It is so important to make a good first impression to visitors. We only have one opportunity for that first contact. We had over 25 come to this needed meeting.

With some help, I was also able to build this visitors station. If you are interested in having a hospitality team trained to greet your visitors, let me know, I would love to help.

FIRST TIME REVIVAL

I was honored to be involved in the first revival of a relatively new church plant. The Straightway Baptist Church, located above Trenton, NJ., has only been going for a few years. They now have a new building, a new sign and their first revival. Praise the Lord for the three souls that were saved and many others that made commitments each night.

More than 50% of pastors are so discouraged that they regularly consider leaving the ministry.

PREPARING FOR THE ROAD

Our time in Lewisburg has been such a blessing to Kelly and I. We were able to accomplish so many things for the Lord and to get some needed rest. We are now making all of our needed repairs and adjustments for the camper to hit the road.

We were blessed in using this time to enhance our ministry and by working on a new website. This website is now complete and ready for use. We pray that it will be a great blessing to many churches and pastors.

NEW WEBSITE

Well here it is... www.baptistconnections.com. This website is designed to help connect seeking pastors with seeking churches. There is also a place for support staff to also find ministries. Please take a look and let me know what you think.
